Bachelor-to-Master
(B2M)
Network
Privileged Access to World-class Masters’ Programs
Introduction

Learning from different cultural and academic environments contributes considerably to enable leaders to navigate in an international environment. Business students who graduate from multiple, international institutions integrate this ability early on; an ability that is not only valued by future employers but that also enables them to tackle the next critical challenges in business and society.

The objective of the Bachelor-to-Master (B2M) network is to encourage global mobility for students in management education by facilitating the members’ respective bachelor students to pursue their studies with a master degree at another member institution.

The B2M network provides individual support, waiver of application fees, and other advantages (such as guaranteed invitation to admission interviews for some partners) for students from within the network, thus greatly simplifying the admission into master programs. The B2M network guarantees students a global education path, with continuing high-quality education at a partner institution in a different country.
Six leading business schools from three different continents have created the B2M network. These six founding members build their cooperation on a long-standing collaboration in different domains and on mutual trust. They do not only share the same values but also adhere to the highest standards in terms of academic and pedagogical quality.

The B2M is a flexible network that is meant to grow through the integration of new member institutions: institutions that share the same values and the same commitment to high quality management education as its founding members.

B2M Passport

Selected students receive a letter (called the “B2M passport”) from their respective Program Director with the mention “Selected for the B2M Alliance” and featuring the list of member schools. This letter serves as a “passport” among the schools.

Students are advised to reach out to the Program Coordinators at their respective home schools to inquire about the deadlines for acquiring the B2M Passport.

Application Procedures

Selected students are allowed to apply through the B2M process to programs of a maximum of two member schools. The selected students are required to indicate on the “B2M passport” the two schools they wish to apply to.

Students must refer to the admission calendar and fact sheet of the schools of their choice before application submission.

The B2M passport holders apply online via the website of the schools of their choice within the alliance and provide the required documents. They go through the normal admissions process specific to each school (interviews, juries, etc.).

Admission Procedures

There is an interview to assess motivation in the MIM at ESSEC. The interview (a panel of 2 to 3 jury members) assess the personality, skills and motivation of the applicants, in order to select those who appear to be best suited to follow the demanding Master program training. The admission jury decides on the final admission based on both the application file and the interview evaluations.

ESSEC notifies candidates via email of the admission results. A payment of deposit is required to confirm enrollment (ESSEC registration stage). The ESSEC Registrar Office will help the registered student to prepare his/her arrival on the campus (Cergy France or Singapore), including support to get the visa to enter France. A student ID and campus card will be provided at the welcome week, usually in August.

Application Procedures

Candidates apply directly to the program using the dedicated online application platform at https://essec.myapply.online/.

Only one application per academic year and program is allowed.
Candidates with the B2M Passport can apply for up to THREE of the following MSc programs in the same academic year:

For specific admission requirements for individual programs, please visit the respective program website where you can also download the program brochure.

Application Procedures

Candidates applying for admission via the B2M process can apply directly to the program(s) using the online application system. The application steps include the following:

- Complete online application form
- Complete online assessment
- Upload:
  - Motivation letter
  - Official academic transcripts (certified translation into English or Spanish if issued in other language)
  - Bachelor degree certificate(s)
  - Official GMAT/GRE score report (if applicable)
  - Professional qualifications (if applicable)
  - B2M passport
  - Reference letter(s)
  - One page CV/Resume
  - English language certificate – for non-Native English speakers: IE accepts the TOEFL (minimum score of 100), the IELTS (minimum score of 7) or a Cambridge Advanced or Proficiency level. A certificate is not required if you completed an undergraduate degree in English. If you take the TOEFL or the IELTS, your English exam is valid for two years from the exam date.
  - Photocopy of current passport
  - Passport size picture

Candidates should first complete the sections that appear in the online application form and upload the required documents. In the ‘More About You’ section of the online application candidates should indicate that they are applying through a Corporate/ Collaboration Agreement, and insert Agreement ID 001366. Once this has been done, candidates will receive a link to answer three live questions, two in video format and one in written format. This way, our admissions team will be able to meet the candidate virtually and evaluate his/her capacity to respond in real time. Students are required to take either the GMAT, GRE or IEGAT. Candidates will have a personal interview (face-to-face or via Skype) with and Associate Director of the Admissions Team. After the interview, the completed application will be evaluated holistically by IE’s Admissions Committee. This is the last step of the application and it will take roughly 1-3 weeks for the Admissions Committee to get back to the candidate with a final decision. Admissions are valid for the intake you apply to and the following one.

Application Procedures

Candidates who wish to apply for admission through the B2M process should send an expression of interest to SmithB2M@queensu.ca, and include a copy of their B2M passport, unofficial transcripts, resume and Smith program of interest.

An online application form will then need to be completed and may require further supporting documentation. As part of the application process, candidates must provide two separate recommendation letters through an online form. The B2M Passport has to be joined to the application file. Only one application per academic year and program is allowed.

The admission jury decides on final admission on the basis of both the application file and the interview evaluations.

Smith notifies candidates via email of admission results. A payment of deposit is required to confirm enrollment. The respective program support teams will help the registered student to prepare for arrival on campus, including support to get the visa to enter Canada. A student ID and campus card will be provided during program launch and orientation.
Located in the heart of the German and European economy, the University of Mannheim Business School, the umbrella organization for management education at the University of Mannheim, is considered to be one of the leading institutions of its kind in Germany.

The School offers a wide variety high-calibre management programs for all career stages, they all excel academically as well as providing practical relevance. Students are expected to enjoy the international study atmosphere and profit from the practical orientation and extensive partner network. More than 100 graduate level exchange programs and 8 graduate level double degrees are available for those students enrolled in the School’s flagship master’s program: The Mannheim Master in Management.

B2M Passport holders can apply through the B2M process to the Mannheim Master in Management (MMM) program.

Special features / signatures of the MMM include:

- German/English track or full English track (no German language skills needed).
- Large variety of specializations, e.g. in Finance, Marketing, Management, Operations Management, Accounting, Taxation, Information Systems. The students decide in which field they want to specialize after their successful admission to the program and are absolutely free in designing their individual study plan.
- (optional) electives from other schools of the University of Mannheim broaden the students’ horizon.
- (optional) semester abroad or double degree.

More information on the MMM can be found online here: https://www.bwl.uni-mannheim.de/en/programs/master/mmm/
Applications should possess the following admission requirements for the MMM program:

- Bachelor’s degree min. 3 years, min. 180 ECTS
- Min. 36 ECTS in business administration
- Proof of English language skills C1
- Proof of German language skills if the student applies for the German-English track

The selection criteria include the Bachelor’s grade, a semester abroad during previous studies, practical experience and the GMAT (min. 600 points)/GRE score. We highly recommend taking the GMAT/GRE to significantly increase the chances of getting admitted.

Target group students: high-potential German and international applicants, from little to quite profound level of work experience (decent periods of internships count towards work experience as internships in Germany mean to be a full member of staff for the time of the internship period).

Selection Statutes:
