TURNING TALENT INTO IMPACT.

ABOUT US

At Mannheim, we believe that our students got the talent to make an impact on business and society by becoming successful leaders and responsible citizens of a globalized world.

The school's roots go back to the 18th century but its predecessor was founded in 1907 as a Handelshochschule (College of Commerce). In 1967, we were awarded university status following the addition of several related fields of study, such as modern languages, history, political science, sociology, communications, psychology, and law. Today, our campus provides students with a modern learning environment in front of a historic backdrop. The spirit of game-changers is in Mannheim's DNA and ever-present on campus and in the city, making it the perfect setting for a modern university working closely with the corporate world.
