

The ZEW – Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research invites applications for the position as a Date

Student Assistant (f/m/d) at the Pensions and Sustainable Financial Markets Department

Keyword
S-FM-01/26

Department/s
Pensions and Sustainable Financial Markets

WE OFFER

- » Participation in current research projects in the research area
- » Preparation and analyses of microeconomic data
- » Insights into empirical economic research
- » Independent work in an attractive academic environment
- » Flexible and exam-friendly division of working hours (25–40 hours per month)

YOUR PROFILE

- » Enrolled master or advanced undergraduate student in economics (VWL), business administration (BWL) or related fields
- » Interest in topics related to household finance, financial literacy, (long-term) financial decisions, pensions and retirement planning
- » Knowledge of econometric software (e.g. Stata) is an advantage
- » Very good language skills (German and English)
- » Reliability, diligence, commitment
- » Interest in a longer-term position alongside your studies

IF INTERESTED, please upload your application (motivation letter, CV, a current transcript of records, your enrollment certificate and, when available, recommendation letters and writing samples (e.g. thesis, seminar paper)) via the online application form on our website.

CONTACT Marius Cziriak (Phone: 0621/1235-161, Email: marius.cziriak@zew.de) or Sara Gregori (Phone: 0621/1235-216, Email: sara.gregori@zew.de)

ZEW – Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research

L7, 1 · 68161 Mannheim · Germany
www.zew.de/en

Leibniz
Gemeinschaft

ZEW – Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research has been awarded the TOTAL E-QUALITY title. This title recognises the institute as an employer that is particularly committed to ensuring equal opportunity in the workplace. Our institute supports and integrates all employees. We welcome applications from all candidates regardless of gender, nationality, ethnicity and social background, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation and identity.