

The Area Accounting & Taxation is offering several part-time positions as research assistants (m/f/d)

starting on October, 1 2026 and onwards.

The Taxation Chairs of Professors Dörrenberg, Olbert, Spengel, and Voget are offering several positions as student research assistants (m/f/d) starting in the Spring Semester 2026 to support teaching and research.

Your tasks include:

- Conduct research for the projects of our employees and professors.
- Support our employees in the preparation of teaching and other tasks.
- Support third-party funded projects to improve teaching.
- Assistance with the editing and publication of academic papers and books.
- Optional: application of data science in the context of empirical research projects.

Your profile:

- You are interested in the topic of taxation.
- You are studying business administration or a related subject (e.g. law, economics, business mathematics/computer science) from the 3rd Bachelor semester with at least good grades.
- You are committed, reliable and efficient.
- You enjoy working in a team and on your own initiative.
- Good written and spoken German and English skills are advantageous.
- Optional: successfully completed tax courses.
- Optional: prior experience in empirical work (e.g., using Stata, R, or Python) and working with databases.

What we offer:

- Exposure to the academic work environment
- A position with individual learning opportunities
- A workplace in the castle
- Cooperation with an interdisciplinary team
- Reliable payment according to the pay rates of Baden-Württemberg

Since we are interested in working with research assistants over a longer

The University of Mannheim is one of the leading universities in Germany with approximately 12,000 students in five schools. Particularly in business and economics as well as in the social sciences the university ranks among the top institutions both at national and international level. More than 2,600 employees profit from an exciting work environment with numerous benefits.

Key information

Start: October, 1 2026 and onwards

Weekly hours: from 20 hours per month

Application deadline:
15 Oktober 2026

period of time, please mention any upcoming longer stays abroad, internships, etc. in your application to improve planning. However, this is not a disadvantage.

Please note that we reserve the right to make a decision on suitable candidates before the application deadline.

Innovative academic working environment

Flexible work time and workplace models
(flexitime, telework)

Positive working atmosphere

Outstanding research culture

Applications from persons with a disability are given preferential consideration provided that they are appropriately qualified. The University of Mannheim is committed to increasing the quota of women in areas where they are underrepresented and thus encourages women with appropriate qualifications to apply.

If you are interested in applying, please send your application documents via e-mail or mail by 15 October 2026 at the latest:

Universität Mannheim – Lehrstuhl für ABWL und Betriebswirtschaftliche Steuerlehre II
Julia Koziarowski, Raum O238
68131 Mannheim
julia.koziarowski@students.uni-mannheim.de

Data protection

Please find detailed information on the collection of personal data from the data subject according to Article 13 GDPR on the university's homepage:
www.uni-mannheim.de/datenschutz-bei-bewerbungen.

Submitted application documents will only be returned if you enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope. Otherwise, they will be destroyed in accordance with current data protection law after the application procedure has ended. Electronic applications will be deleted accordingly..

If you apply by e-mail, please note that protection of confidential data cannot be guaranteed as unauthorized third parties might gain access to unencrypted e-mails during transmission.