English language skills

With regard to the international orientation of our Bachelor, very good English language skills are required. If you can prove your English language skills until July 15 (application deadline), this will give you 20 additional points in this section of the admission process. In any case, you have to submit the proof until the start of lectures.

Very good English skills can be provided in the following ways:

- English courses were attended throughout the two senior classes of secondary school, whereby the average mark as shown on the 'Abitur' certificate must be a minimum of 11 points.

- The university entrance requirements were fulfilled in an anglophone school system.

- Degree of a study program entirely taught in English.

- The following language tests that are not older than 2 years:
  - Test of English as a Foreign Language - Internet-Based Test (TOEFL iBT): minimum of 100 points
  - The European Language Certificate (telc) - English University: minimum level C1
  - International English Language Testing System (IELTS) - Academic Test: minimum volume 6.0
  - Certificate in Advanced English (CAE): minimum level C
  - Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE): minimum level C
