INTERNSHIP IN THE EXECUTIVE CHINA STRATEGY TEAM

How brave are you? As a high-tech company for machine tools and laser technology, we are looking for young talents who encounter new challenges with fresh thinking and energetic drive. We provide you freedom to contribute courageous ideas to our family business. Together with you, we want to enhance the digital networking of the manufacturing industry. Our passion and determination make us a global leader of innovative power - at over 70 TRUMPF locations worldwide.

Your tasks

- Supporting the Group Management in the development of the TRUMPF China strategy
- Preparing presentations and market analyses
- Conducting research on China-specific strategy topics
- Carrying out own strategic projects

What we are looking for

- Studies of mechanical engineering, business administration, sinology or physics
- First practical experience in business development and strategy
- Good knowledge of MS Office, especially PowerPoint and Excel
- Fluent in English and/or Chinese, ideally also German language skills
- First practical experience in China or other Asian countries
- Structured and independent working attitude, strong analytical and organizational skills
- Duration: 6 months, flexible starting date

What we offer

- State-of-the-art working environment
- Broad range of training and further education opportunities
- Actively promoted work-life balance, e.g. with sports and fitness programs
- Respectful and appreciative corporate culture
