Overall satisfaction

What did you especially like about the course?

- 1) The course gave a great overview of the corporate finance literature, both theoretical and empirical. 2) The instructor encouraged active discussion 3) The instructor provided valuable insights into the publication process
- Basically I like everything about this course. The course is very well organized and every of the course contents are right at the students' level. The 3-4 hour lecture is also just perfect for thoroughly introducing a topic and also not too long for us to concentrate.
- Good structure, engaged instructor
- Great presentation style of lecturer; Ernst has the ability to explain(sometimes very tedious) theoretical models in an easy way and to make the intuition behind them clear
- Small group, analytical papers
- The instructor was exceptionally open to questions and always willing to discuss and elaborate
- Well structured with classical models

Do you have any recommendations how to improve the course? If so, which ones?

- I do not have any recommendations about this course. I am good with everything.
- I found the 4.5 hour sessions a bit too long, and at the end of each session, I often cannot focus as well.
- It might not be a bad idea to have an extended session, where students come up with modifications to models introduced in class and the lecturer comment on these modifications.
- Let's not switch Zoom rooms. Why can we not have our own Zoom room for each meeting?
- Maybe schedule the lecture until 1pm
- make the sessions shorter and/or have breaks more frequently. It is hard to focus for more than 90 minutes without any breaks
- none, the course was great!
