

The Chair of Corporate Governance is offering a part-time position as

Research Assistant (m/f/d)

starting on 1 February 2026.

The Chair of Corporate Governance at the Mannheim Business School is looking for a student assistant from February 2026 or by arrangement. The position comprises 20 hours per month and is initially limited to 12 months, with the possibility of extension.

As a student research assistant at the Chair of Corporate Governance you will have the opportunity to gain insights into several interesting research projects in the fields of corporate governance, corporate finance, ESG investing, financial literacy and gender differences in financial markets. We offer a diverse range of tasks and insights into teaching and research activities.

Your tasks include:

In this position, you will support ongoing research projects at our chair. In particular, you will be involved in literature research, the collection and preparation of data, the preparation of manuscripts and presentations as well as administrative tasks.

Your profile:

In addition to a very good to good academic performance, we expect an interest in our research projects (sustainable corporate governance, ESG investing, and gender differences in financial markets, etc.) and a good knowledge of MS-Office (especially Excel and PowerPoint). Knowledge of Stata or other statistical programs is an advantage, but not essential. The willingness to acquire such knowledge during working hours would be important.

What we offer:

We offer flexible working hours and the opportunity to work remotely.

Applications from persons with a disability are given preferential consideration provided that they are appropriately qualified. The University of Mannheim is
