

OPM 782 - Master Colloquium Service Operations

Offering: Fall and Spring term

Lecturer: Prof. Dr. Cornelia Schön

Form of assessment: Presentation, active contribution to class discussion

Language: English/German

Aim of module: The Master Colloquium provides students with an opportunity to present core ideas of their thesis project and to receive feedback from their peers as well as from their supervisor. This feedback will help them in the completion of their thesis. The presentation will be scheduled about half-way through the project.

Learning outcomes: Students will learn how to analyze and present a complicated problem in a well-structured way. They will benefit from their individual feedback as well as from attending and discussing presentations by their peers.

Prerequisites: For students writing their master thesis at the Chair of Service Operations Management only.
