

Spring Term 2022

TAX 451: Case Study Competition on Tax Transparency

Basic information

Content:

- Introduction on current topics on tax transparency
- European Council Directive “DAC6” and implementation of the DAC6 into national law in EU member states

Key Learning Takeaways:

- Develop a deeper understanding of the context behind current events in international taxation
- Take the opportunity to put theory learned from taxation course into practice

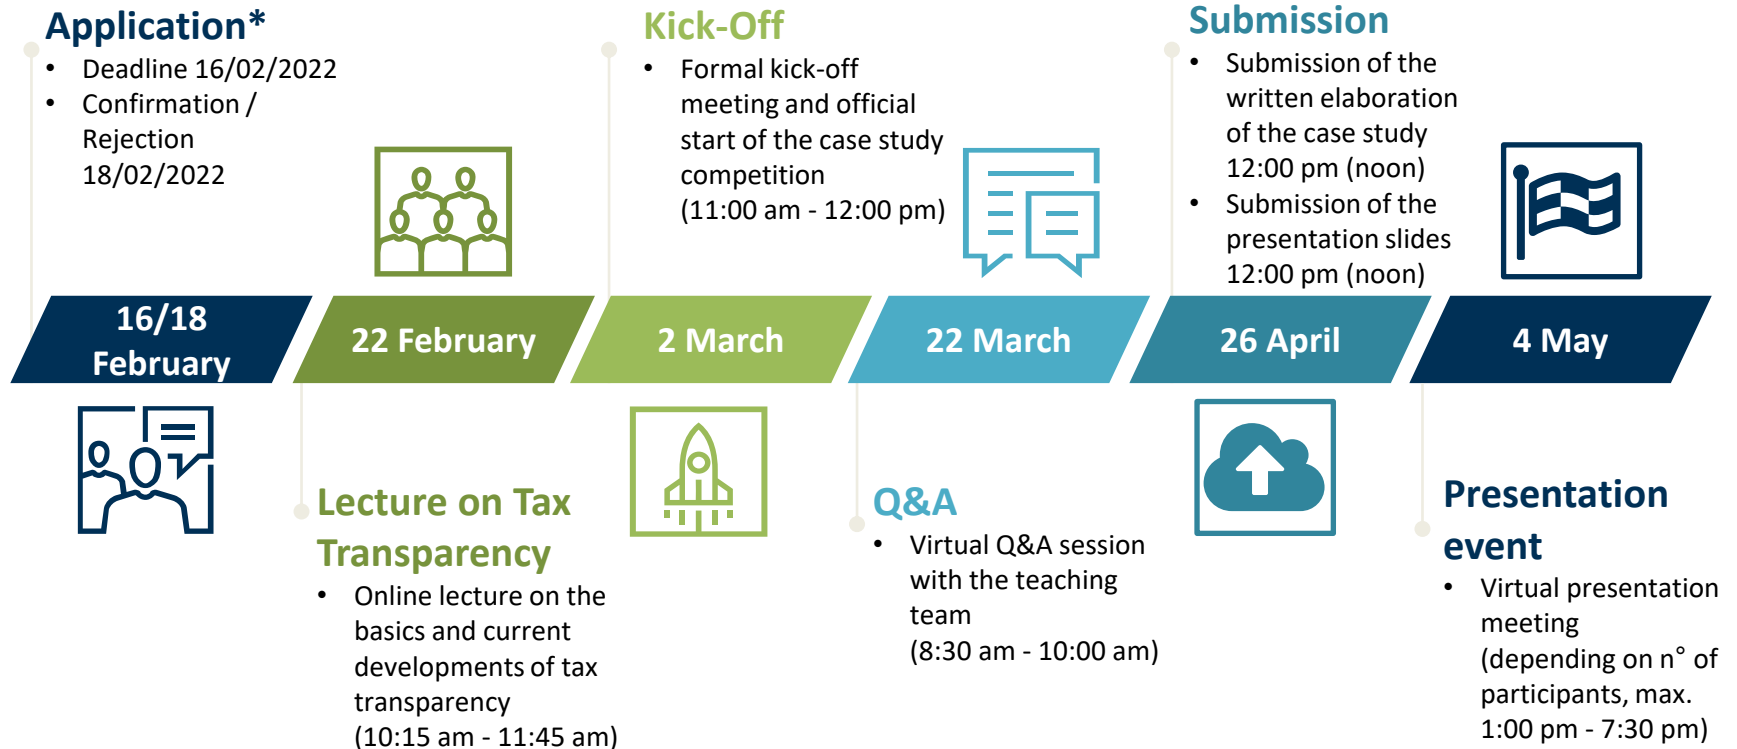

Incentives:

- Teamwork on a relevant and current tax topic
- Hands on learning
- Individual feedback from a PwC mentor
- Networking opportunities

Spring Term 2022

TAX 451: Case Study Competition on Tax Transparency

Schedule

*For students participating within the ENGAGE.EU programme, the application deadlines for ENGAGE.EU are binding.

Spring Term 2022

TAX 451: Case Study Competition on Tax Transparency

Grading

The presentation and the written elaboration are weighted equally.

Presentation:

- Presentation and Q&A
- Individual grade

Written Elaboration:

- Same content as the presentation
- Group grade
- 8-10 pages

Spring Term 2022

TAX 451: Case Study Competition on Tax Transparency

Registration procedure*

Due to the limited number of participants, registration is binding.

What?

- Transcript and CV or
- Transcript and two sentences about your motivation to participate in the case study

When?

Deadline: 16/02/2022

Confirmation/Rejection will be sent until 18/02/2022

To whom?

Leonie Fischer: leonie.fischer@zew.de

Sarah Winter: swinter@uni-mannheim.de

Further information: <https://www.bwl.uni-mannheim.de/en/spengel/teaching/bachelor/tax-451-case-study-competition-on-tax-transparency/>

*For students participating within the ENGAGE.EU Online Exchange Initiative, the registration procedure (including deadlines) for ENGAGE.EU is binding.