- Everything is good. Maybe more material (less repetition from divestments)
- Possibility for discussion in a small group
- Practical, good knowledge for research
- Prof. Theissen. No Kidding.
- Timing: Not full term -> time for exam preparation
Content: Broad overview of important finance content
Case study approach: Enhances practical learning
- Very good way of explaining
- What I most like about the course is that it combines empirical methods with read world financial analysis.

What should/could be improved?

- Can't think of anything. So perfect.
- Case studies are partly really long and demanding
- Maybe provide even more support in programming.
- More tutorial for STATA beforehand would be nice.
- Too much repetition from investments I courses. Should be made a prerequisite.
