What did you especially like about the course?

- 10 Ects
- Course was great!
- Good preparation for further empirical courses/ seminar/ thesis
- I am satisfied with the lecture
- I really like the content and it gets me into a more research world. I really enjoy it
- It would be nice to cover GMM based approaches / examples in finance literature as well
- Professor Theissen
- The clear knowledge structure and vivid illustration of scientific methods
- contents
- empirical content
strong logical structure

What should/could be improved?

- Lecture schedule can be less intensive
- Lectures and case studies are not in sync until the 3rd case but my impression was that the case studies should be somewhat based on what we learned in the lectures
- Making Investments course ( FIN 500) as prerequisite could allow to make more advanced and completely avoid repetition of material from investment course
- Nothing, it's a supreme course
- This course requires prior knowledge of stata, but actually most of students (at least I) don't have any knowledge before. It would be a huge disadvantage and very time-consuming
- This lecture assumes all students are familiar with stata in the beginning of the lecture, but the stata lecture offered by university is actually not that helpful which makes the case very difficult in technical aspect. It will be better if more useful stata lecture can be offered before Empirical Finance lecture
- choose a small class room
- reduce detailed discussion of some alternatives (.) test statistics may be include a chapter dedicated to: How to handle missing values for example -->more details about data service techniques (+include 1 example case study that's explained in class)
- too much content to digest
